Dr. Alexander Andrianov Joins Apogee as Vice President of Research and Development

NORWOOD, Mass. (September 6, 2006) — Apogee Technology, Inc. (AMEX: ATA), an emerging micro-systems and nanotechnology company that designs, develops and commercializes medical devices and sensor products, announced today that Dr. Alexander Andrianov has joined Apogee as the Vice President of Research and Development. Dr. Andrianov will support the design and development of novel drug coating and encapsulation technologies for the Company's PyraDerm™ intradermal drug delivery system.

Dr. Andrianov brings over 20 years experience in the application of polymers for biomaterials and drug delivery. Most recently he was the co-founder and Chief Scientific Officer of Parallel Solutions from 2001 until 2006, where his efforts were focused on the development of biodegradable polymers for protein delivery and a new class of potent vaccine immunoadjuvants. Prior to joining Parallel Solutions, he worked for Physical Science, Inc. as Principal Research Scientist and at Avant Immunotherapeutics, Inc. as Director of Polymer Synthesis and Formulation. Dr. Andrianov is listed as an inventor on over 35 patents and patent applications and has published numerous technical papers. Dr. Andrianov received his Ph.D. in Polymer Science from Moscow State University in 1985 and served as a faculty member until 1991. He continued his academic training at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology working with Professor Robert Langer.

About Apogee Technology, Inc.

Apogee Technology designs, develops and commercializes proprietary medical device and sensor products using its MEMS and nanotechnology for the medical, automotive, industrial and consumer markets. The Company is developing its PyraDerm™ solution for enhanced intradermal drug delivery and has introduced a family of pressure sensors under the Sensilica™ brand. Apogee's goal is to provide value-added and cost-savings solutions for our customers and, in so doing, to become a global leader in the sensor and medical device fields.
